

Please note that you make changes in the notifications with caution. Expressions in curly brackets {} will automatically be replaced by the name of the platform, of the participants or the event.

Name of the notification	When is this notification sent?
activate	When a user has clicked on the confirmation link in the registration email, he receives this message afterwards.
admin_user_invitation	When an administrator creates a new user, this user gets the notification.
change_email	After having changed the email address of a user, this message is sent.
change_password	When a user changes his password in his settings, he gets this message afterwards.
create_new_password	When a member of the platform uses the "forgot password" function at the login process, he gets this notification afterwards and can change his password.
create_new_password_success	After a member has used the "forgot password" function and has changed his password, he gets this message.
delete_profile	When a user has deleted his account on a business platform, he receives this notification.
edudip_rating_reminder	After a webinar, the participant gets the following message in which he is requested to evaluate the seen webinar.
event_approved	If webinars first have to be activated for the marketplace, the creator of the webinar gets this message when it has been activated for the marketplace by the administrator.
event_disapproved	If webinars first have to be activated for the marketplace, the creator of the webinar gets this message when it has not been activated for the marketplace by the administrator.
event_minparticipants_reached	If a minimum number of participants has been set which is reached now, all the registered participants get this notification.
event_participant_added	When a trainer registers persons for an event in the event manager under "participants", these persons will get the following message.
event_reminder	24 hours and 1 hour before the start of a booked event, all the registered participants receive this message.
event_reminder_trainer	24 hours and 1 hour before the start of an event, the trainer receives the following reminding email.
eventregister	When a participants registers for an event that has to be confirmed manually by the trainer, the participants first gets this message.

eventregister_approved	Participants that register for a webinar get this message. For a webinar with manual confirmation by the trainer, participants get this message when the trainer has confirmed the registration.
eventregister_cancel	When a participant logs off from a webinar for which he was registered, the trainer of the webinar receives this notification.
eventregister_informCreator	The trainer who created a webinar with manual confirmation of the participants receives the following message to confirm the registration of a participant.
forumtopic_notifier	When a new entry for an observed topic in the forum of a webinar is written, the "observer" gets this message.
invitation	When a trainer creates a new webinar to which he invites participants in the event manager under "invite", all these invited persons get this message.
moderatorChanged	When the trainer names a co-moderator for his webinar, the co-moderator gets this message.
msg_inbox	When there is a new message on a business platform, the recipient gets this notification.
new_contact_approved	When a contact confirms a sent contact request, the sender of this request gets a message when the request is accepted.
new_contact_pending	When a user receives a contact request, he gets this message.
new_event_forum_topic	When a user creates a new topic in the forum of an event, all the registered participants and the trainer get this message.
register	When a user registers for a business platform, this is the first message a new user receives.
register_reminder	A user gets the activation link for his account in this message.
videobuy	When a user buys a video, he receives this message.